Wills, Trusts & Probate

Far too many people put off planning for their future because it's something they don't want to think about. Unfortunately, this means that if the worst happens, your loved ones could be left with some very complicated issues to resolve at an already difficult time.

Our specialist solicitors understand how sensitive these issues can be and offer a friendly, empathetic service to help you put the right legal measures in place.

Employment Law

Even the best run businesses sometimes experience employment issues which can have a very negative impact if not handled in the right way.

However, with the proper legal advice and guidance, many of the potential issues that could lead to an employment dispute can be avoided. Our employment law solicitors provide clear and practical advice for both employers and employees.
